R. B. GLENN THE NOMINEE

The Convention in Session All Night and Nominates at Daylight.

EXCITING SCENES

The Convention Refuses to Endorse Payker and Instructs Delegates to Vote as Unit.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch) GREENSBORO, N. C., June 2434 The Democratic State Convention adjourned this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, having completed, without any especial incident. a tremendous amount of work. This a tremendous amount of work. This morning, after 5 o'clock, having bon in continuous session all night, on the fifth ballot. Captain Robert B. Glenn, of Forsyth county, received the necessary number of votes to give him the nomination for Governor. To-day ex-Judge Francis D. Winston, of Bertle, was nominated for Licutenant-Governor over his competitors, State Senators George L. Morton, of New Hanover, and J. A. Brown, of Columbus. All the present incumbents of State offices were renominated, there being opposition to the commissioner of agriculture and member of railroad commission alone.

ASSOCIATE JUSTICES.

ASSOCIATE JUSTICES.

For associate justices of the Supreme Court, to succeed present Republican members, whose terms expire, Superior Court Judge Georgé H. Brown and W. A. Hoke were nominated, the latter defeating M. H. Justice by a large majority. The most loudly applauded section of the report of the Committee on Platform was the endorsement of Governor Aycock's administration, approving his strenuous educational policy and commending teachers of the State for educational activity.

Almost riotous demonstrations of disapproval greeted an amendment offered to this section, pledging the party to constitutional amendment, permitting restriction of funds for education of negroes to taxes paid by them. It was buried in an avalanche of noes, the patron, in attempting to speak, being treated with jeers until by special request of the chairman he was allowed to make a short speech in its advocacy. The section approving the general principles of the Watts anti-liquor law and expressing confidence in the next Legislature to remedy any defects developed by experience, was adopted without discussion. No reference was made to financial questions in the platform, but Roosevelt and his party were scored for maindministration of affairs of government, UNIT RULE. UNIT RULE.

veit and his party were scored administration of affairs of government.

UNIT RULE.

Resolution requiring delegates to National Convention to vote as a unit was adopted, but the section endorsing Parker for President, was greeted with another rijotous demonstration of disapproval. So opposed to endorsement principle did delegates seem, all efforts to prevail on them to allow its withdrawal, were futile, until Senator Simmons came forward and made an earnest plea that its defeat would be an injustice to Judge Parker, who really was the choice of all the delegates for President, under present lights, he declared, amid applause, was the chairman of Platform Committee permitted to withdraw resolution. The delegates at large to St. Louis elected on first ballot, were: General Julian S. Carr, Locke Craige, ex-Minister E. J. Hale and States Senator John E. Woodard. Alternates, C. O. McMichael, Cope Elias, C. B. Watson and James A. Dockhart. One of the anomalies of the situation is that of the twenty-four delegates going under the majority unit rule, eighteen of them have formerly trained wits what is known as the Cleveland element, several known to be for his nomination now, but all for Parker except one, who is said to be for Hearst.

DECLINED THE HONOR.

Senators Simmons and Overman and Governor Aycock refused to allow their names to be considered as delegates. While the convention has been the largest and noisiest in history of State, every matter considered was without heat, and congratulations are heard from all classes and assortments of Democrats over final outcome on all questions considered. The primary question was not brought up, except that a resolution authorizing Executice Committee to restrict number of delegates to future State and congressional conventions was voted.

thorizing Executice Committee to restrict number of delegates to future State and congressional conventions was voted down before chair could put molion. F. S. Spruill, of Franklin, and W. A. Self, of Catawba counties, were selected as State presidential electors. The Platform.

The Platform.

The platform adopted after brief reference to the setting of the race problem by the passage of the anendary of the race problem by the passage of the anendary of the race problem by the passage of the anendary of the settlement made in 1872 and will forever oppose any and all attempts from any quarter to set aside the settlement then made in 1872 and will forever oppose any and all attempts from any quarter to set aside the settlement then made in the settlement that was alike creditable to the State and fair to the holders of the mational policies thus:

It then speaks of the mational policies and monopolists. Congress appropriated $50,000 to employ special counsel to enforce the law against monopolies and monopolists. Congress appropriated $60,000 to employ special counsel to enforce the set of the same special counsel to enforce the law against monopolies and monopolists. Congress appropriated $60,000 to employ special counsel to enforce the set of the set of the special counsel to enforce the set of the special counsel to enforce the set of the special counsel to enforce the properties of the people, nor punish the criminals who plunder them, although his attention was called to the manner in which the perpeturors might be punished by recent decisions of the Supreme Court.

"We denounce the present iniquitous, unjust who plunder them, although his attention, was called to the manner in which the perpeturors might be punished by recent decisions of the Supreme Court.

"We denounce the product Republican party, and the secretally showed upon the people unreasonable profits, and to sell their products to consumer."

Winston-Salem Turns Out to Welcome Capt. Glenn Home.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WINSTON, N. C., June 24.—Winston-Salem gave Capitain Robert B. Glenn, who was this morning nominated for Governor of North Carolina by the Democratic State Convention, a hearty welcome upon his arrival here to-night from Greensboro. Several thousand men, women and children greeted the next Godernor when his train rolled into the union passongen station.

The demonstration that followed was the most magnificent ever accorded any man by the people of this city. The train was delayed for more than one hour below town, caused by a horse running on a long trestic. A colored man discovered the animal just in time to flag the train down and prevent a terrible wreck. Music by a brass band, bon fires, ringing of bells and blowing- of whistles formed a part of the big demonstration to Capitain Glenn, who made a short address from his carriage in front of Hotel Phoenix. He was happily introduced by Mayor O, B. Eaton,

In his speech Capitain Glenn told the great crowd how he appreciated the honor bestowed upon him by the people of the State he loved so well, and especially did he thank the people of his home town for the splendid manifestation of their approval of his nomination.

the race, the Emperor threw his military cap into the air and exclaimed; "Good. I will now winess the race next year in France."

The Emperor had invited Přesident Loubet to witness the automobile race upon German soil this year, and he expects that as a mere matter of courtesy, he will be invited to view it next year in France by virtue of the Frenchman's victory.

France by virtue to the victory.

The invitation will be accepted gladly, and the incident has evidently served to bring about a rapprochement between the French and German people, which is likened by statesmen in both countries to that inaugurated of the era of good feeling bytween Great Britain and France, which followed M. Loubet's visit to tenden hast year. to London last year.
